Dear Parents & Students,

1. How does the idea of having our very own weekly, customized newspaper sound?

Here's the good news for our students...

2. Our school, in collaboration with Curious Times will publish a weekly newspaper which will carry articles, poems, riddles, anecdotes, book reviews, original comic strips and art work written by all of you. The e-newspaper will be released online, every Saturday.
3. The summer vacation will be the perfect time for all of you to put your thoughts on paper and submit your contributions to your class teachers by 15 July 2022. An email id will be provided by your class teacher for the submissions.
4. All submissions must be mailed as a word document attachment (No pdf or scanned copies, to enable editing). Please mention your full name, class & section at the end of the page.
5. It is pertinent to mention that all submissions must be your original work and not copied / plagiarized from the internet or any other sources.
6. Let's get started and put our thoughts to paper. Connect with your class teacher for the email id.

Kind regards
Editorial team
